A WORD FROM THE DEAN

Your academic journey begins with a decision — a decision to aim higher, to think globally, and to build the foundation for a career without limits.

Dr. Nicolas ARNAUD
Dean & Director General of Rabat Business School

At Rabat Business School, the International Program in Management (IPM) is more than just an undergraduate degree : it is a transformative experience that prepares you from day one to understand, engage with, and shape the world of business.

Fully aligned with the highest international standards and taught in a multicultural and dynamic environment, the IPM programme offers a rich blend of academic excellence, real-world exposure, and personal development. From the very first year, you'll explore the fundamentals of management, work on impactful projects, and develop the analytical and leadership skills that define future global leaders.

Thanks to our international recognitions (AACSB, EFMD Member, QS, Financial Times, etc), our commitment to innovation, and a vast network of prestigious academic partners around the world, including opportunities for double degrees with top-ranked institutions, the IPM programme opens doors to international experiences and elite career paths. Whether you choose to continue your studies abroad, join the workforce, or launch your own entrepreneurial venture, RBS provides the tools, guidance, and ecosystem to help you succeed.

Rabat Business School is not just where you study — it's where you grow. It is where your ambitions take shape, where your curiosity is encouraged, and where your potential is unlocked.

Welcome to a journey of excellence, opportunity, and discovery. Welcome to RBS.
